Welcome

Some of the areas needs login to access, most do to edit.

Short information

Under the RPG heading you can find the Role Playing games that I like and normally play. Some collected stuff from different Systems, that makes it easier to run/play a session. Here is also listed the campaigns that I lead or play in. Under Misc there are some other stuff that did not fit in the other two categories.

Under tabletop you'll find stuff relating to Blood Bowl and Warhammer Fantasy.

Other than that there are some things I collected that I can revisit and laugh about, hopefully material that does not offend or enrage, but then again i really don't care if they do, since almost anything can be annoying to one person or another.
